Our favorite choice board can be printed on Astrobrights paper, in black and white, to make it pop. Scroll down to page 2 to begin editing. Simply click, type and print. Soooo easy!!!

K-I Choice Board Week #4 April 27-May I, 2020

Play hangman using sentences. For example:
_-__! (Janeville school is the best!) Guess a letter and if it isn't in the sentence then your opponent gets to draw a body part. Good luck!

Check out Jack Hartmann's videos on YouTube to practice your sight words (aka word wall words). Jack Hartmann Kids Music Channel. He actually has much more than sight words so enjoy it all!

Write a math story problem. Send me a picture and I will try to solve it!
(This is for grade I-K's can try if they'd like) You can even write one for your family members to try to solve.

STEAM Challenge: Upcycling. Go to the attachment I've posted. ASD-N Weekly STEAM. I would LOVE to see pictures of what you create!

Ask your mom for some loose change and count it.

Dimes=10, pennies=1, nickels=5). You will have to count by $10 \mathrm{~s}, 5 \mathrm{~s}$, and Is . We have not done this at school yet so it may be tricky.

Play SOS with sounds. Review the sound sheet before you start. The sound sheet is in the pictures.

Math ~ Go to website hand2mindathome.com Scroll down to Daily Lessons by Grade and find your grade ( $k$ or D, click on the arrow. Then you will see week I. You can click on Math (English) and there are problems that you can work on. parents can also check out the videos to help. You can do any of the weeks it doesn't matter the order. Week 6 is my favorite math teacher. Christina Tondevold. If you click on the Watch the Day I Lesson the video should pop up.

Check out the attachment I've posted. Nature Ninja! Complete the tasks as you are able to. Have fun!

Check your mailbox! Please write back to me! If you can't get a stamp, send me an email instead! chantal.daley@nbed. nb.ca

Check your mailbox on Epic! Lat week I assigned some books for you to read for Earth Day.
Please continue to read every day!

